Justice in the
New Testament
Justice and Sabbath Laws

Lesson 1, Matthew 12:1-14, KJV

Strange Sunday Laws

The following unusual laws related specifically to Sundays are on the books (but probably not enforced). Can you guess which state passed each law? Circle the correct answer.

1. You cannot buy meat of any kind. (Washington, Oregon, Nevada)
2. You may not sell toothpaste and a toothbrush to the same customer. (Delaware, Vermont, Rhode Island)
3. Dominoes may not be played. (Georgia, Alabama, Arkansas)
4. Unmarried women who parachute on Sunday risk arrest, fine, and/or jail. (Virginia, Tennessee, Florida)
5. No one may walk around with an ice cream-cone in his/her pocket. (New York, Texas, New Mexico)
6. No work may be done on Sunday (unless you believe that Saturday should be observed as the Sabbath). (North Carolina, South Carolina, Kentucky)
7. No member of the clergy is allowed to tell jokes or humorous stories from the pulpit during a church service. (North Dakota, South Dakota, West Virginia)
8. It is illegal to fish for whales. (California, Alaska, Ohio)

How Do They Compare?

After reading Matthew 12:1-14, select the correct symbol to show how the two answers compare. Is the first one greater than (>), equal to (=), or less than (<) the second one? Circle the correct answer.

Parables of God’s Just Kingdom
Lesson 2, Matthew 13:24-33, KJV

What Do You Know?
Identify which of the following statements are actually true.

T  F  1. Putting salt in water makes it boil more quickly.
T  F  2. Frankenstein was the name of the monster in Mary Shelley’s book Frankenstein.
T  F  3. Both dolphins and porpoises are mammals.
T  F  4. Bulls are enraged by the color red.
T  F  5. The tomato is a fruit.
T  F  6. Your blood is blue before it is oxygenated.
T  F  7. Handling a baby bird will make its mother reject it.
T  F  8. The forbidden fruit mentioned in Genesis was an apple.
T  F  9. The word sushi means “sour-tasting,” not “raw fish.”
T  F  10. There is a dark side of the moon.
T  F  11. Your fingernails continue to grow after you die.
T  F  12. The Great Wall of China cannot be seen from space.

What Would You Say?
How might you use one of the three parables from today’s text to correct the misunderstandings of the following people?

Thomas: “Our church is small and insignificant. How can we possibly have any impact on our community?”

Carla: “I’m just not interested in world missions. It seems so far removed from my everyday life.”

Rosalie: “I don’t understand why a loving God would allow so much evil to exist in the world. Why doesn’t He just wipe out all the bad people?”

Lesson 3, Matthew 15:1-9, KJV

Looking for Loopholes

Can you guess the outcome of the following situation in which someone tried to find and use a loophole to his benefit?

In 1999 civil engineer David Phillips noticed a promotion on his Healthy Choice frozen dinner. Anyone who sent in 10 Healthy Choice® barcodes would get 1,000 frequent flyer miles. He found a cheap product in the HC line—pudding—so he got a van and bought every cup of HC pudding he could find—12,150 in all. To avert suspicion at stores, he said he was stocking up for Y2K. He also got the Salvation Army to peel off the barcodes for him in exchange for donating the pudding, which earned him an $800 tax deduction.

A. Lawyers for Healthy Choice found a loophole themselves and said they only had to give out 1,000 miles per person.

B. Healthy Choice, caught off guard, resisted at first, but ended up forking over the 1.25 million miles to Phillips.

C. While refusing to pay up, the company offered Phillips and his family an all-expenses-paid vacation in Hawaii.

Excuses, Excuses!

Like the Pharisees, we can sometimes find “good” reasons for ourselves for not obeying the commands of God. What excuses have you made for breaking the following commands?

Put God first. ____________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________________

Honor parents. ____________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________________

Tell the truth. ____________________________________________________________

What is one way you can change this tendency to make excuses for yourself? _________________________

Reaping God's Justice

Lesson 4, Luke 16:19-31, KJV

Turnabout Is Fair Play

To perform this reading of Jesus' parable, you'll need a Narrator (N), a rich man (RM), Lazarus (L), and Abraham (A). The instructions in italics show the characters how to act out the parts.

N: There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day. (RM looks proud and appears to be enjoying a big meal.)

N: And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate, full of sores. (L is helped in by N, looking very pitiful and appearing to be in pain.)

N: And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man’s table. (L holds out hands to RM, who waves him away and ignores him.)

N: Moreover the dogs came and licked his sores. (L holds up stuffed dog that licks his arm.)

N: And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham’s bosom. (L falls into chair dead but slowly rises with big smile and is embraced by Abraham.)

N: The rich man also died, and was buried. (RM falls into chair dead, then on knees awake.)

N: And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments. (RM fans self as though very hot.)

N: And seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom. (L falls into chair dead but slowly rises with big smile and is embraced by Abraham.)

RM (crying loudly): Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame. *(As RM speaks, L is pointing to himself as though saying, “Who, me?!”) *

A: Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things. (L looks sad and nods as though saying, “Yes, that’s right!”)

A: But now he is comforted, and thou art tormented. (L grins broadly.)

A: And beside all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence. (As A is speaking, L peers down with wide eyes, motions back and forth with his hands, and vigorously shakes his head no.)

RM: I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father’s house: for I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment. (L is shaking his head as though saying, “No, no! I don’t want to go!”)

A: They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them. (L nods yes and points to his ear.)

RM: Nay, father Abraham: but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent.

A: If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead. (L shakes his head no, shrugs shoulders, as though saying, “It’s too late.”)

Different Kinds of “Poor”

Which kind of poor person are you best at helping? What will you do this week to help?

Emotionally poor: “The feeling of being unwanted is the most terrible poverty.” —Teresa of Calcutta

Spiritually poor: “The Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost” (Luke 19:10).

THE PURSUIT OF JUSTICE

The purpose of the widow’s persistent prayer was justice. Jesus promised at the end of the parable that God would be faithful to accomplish justice to those who cry out to Him day and night.

Fill in the chart below in regard to some injustices you’re aware of that are going on in the lives of people, perhaps even your own. Name the individual who is being affected by this injustice. Place a check mark after each time you pray for this individual. After praying, write in some small action steps that the person can take, or you can take on that person’s behalf, to address the injustice that’s happening.

Entering God’s Kingdom

All Points on the Compass

Jesus said that people will come from east and west and north and south to enter into the kingdom of Heaven.

On the map below, jot down some notes for prayers in regard to what you know is happening with Christians in particular countries. [For instance: Christians in Europe are facing significant spiritual apathy from those outside of the kingdom; Christians in North America are to be encouraged in helping their brothers and sisters in Christ in Third World countries.]

First and Last

Complete the following word-search puzzle, looking for words that are often used to describe people who are “first” in terms of the world’s standards.

Look for these words:

Money    Power
Prestige  Status
Yacht    Mansion
Title    Luxury
Premium

Face Value

Match the coins with their values. Depending on condition, the Indian Head penny could be worth more than all the others combined. Two Mercury dimes would buy a tank of gas in 1929; and today—if sold for their worth—they’d still buy a tank of gas. What determines value? What or who do we take at “face value,” not seeing their true worth?

MISSION: MONEY

Paul wrote 2 Corinthians while on his third missionary journey (c. AD 54 to 58). Draw a line tracing the route of this journey, based on Acts 18:23 to 21:17. In addition to the church in Corinth, the churches in the Macedonian cities of Philippi, Thessalonica, and Berea likely gave generously for the relief effort, according to 2 Corinthians 8:1-7. Draw lines from these four cities to Jerusalem to visualize the flow of benevolent support.

CASE STUDIES

Read the following case studies and then write one of your own.

#1. A father is recovering from cancer. His son will have to drop out of college just weeks before graduation to get a job and buy food. They receive a few hundred dollars anonymously. It’s enough to get by until graduation.

#2 A missionary couple working in Japan raises their two children to adulthood, then adopts three more, one of them handicapped.

#3 A woman in her 80s turns her home into an Operation Christmas Child “factory” where dozens of people contribute to and assemble Christmas boxes. Total boxes during a decade? Over 6,000.

Lesson 12, Romans 12:9-21, KJV

Shirt and Shoes Required

Every day and everywhere we have rules to follow. Some are posted, some written as instructions, some announced over a loudspeaker, and others just understood as necessary for a civilized society. Briefly explain why these rules—and others you can recall—might be useful.

FOLKS IN TOWN GET ALONG

All residents of Williamstown got along today. Kind affection and brotherly love broke out like the plague. Hundreds of citizens wanted to enjoy each other’s company. The new coffee shop, Beans, reported standing room only and Elmer’s Country Store sold out of some flavors of ice cream. “Our best day ever,” said Elmer. “We have an overnight shipment coming in: coffee toffee, bubble gum, and three more flavors. We’ll need to expand our hours if this keeps up!”

Lesson 10

Truths and Consequences: Answers may vary.
(1) Some people judge others; they condemn themselves in return.
(2) Those who judge are guilty of the same sins; they will not escape God’s judgment.
(3) Some people have hard and impenitent hearts; they are “treasuring up” wrath against themselves.
(4) Some people patiently continue in well doing; they will receive eternal life.
(5) Other people obey unrighteousness rather than the truth; they will receive indignation and wrath.
(6) Some people do evil; they will receive tribulation and anguish.
(7) Other people “worketh good”; they will receive glory, honor, and peace.
