

PRINCIPLE PRACTICED

Discuss the following questions with one other person.

My Answer

My Partner's Answer

1. Do you reserve one day each week to rest from normal work? Why, or why not?
2. Do you observe Sunday as “the Lord’s Day”? Why, or why not?
3. Considering Romans 14:5, 6, which day or days do you hold to be more important than others, if any, in terms of honor and devotion to God? Why?
4. Is there anything we have talked about that should be kept just between the two of us?

REST WRESTLING

How do Romans 14:5, 6; Colossians 2:16, 17; and other passages inform your response to these statements?

“I saw my neighbor, who is also a deacon at our church, repairing his car on Sunday! He’s not being a good Christian, since the Bible tells us to rest on the Sabbath.”

---

“I don’t think the idea of having a day of rest applies to Christians. God said to do that as part of the old covenant, but we are under the new covenant.”

NOTHING LESS THAN PERFECT

As six learners present the following skit, have the rest of the class find verses related to the priest's comments about each animal. Suggested discoveries are listed in the answer key.

PRIEST: Everyone with a sacrifice to offer to God can line up right here. I'll take a good look at it to be sure it is acceptable. We want all of our sacrifices to honor our holy God. So, who's first?

First Person: I have brought a goat to be used for a burnt offering.

PRIEST: Well, bring it over here. Good, I see it's a male and appears to be in good shape. But let me run my hand over it. What's this? There's some kind of bump here. Could that be a tumor?

First Person: I don't know; he's had that growth for a while now. I'd forgotten about it.

PRIEST: Well, you can forget about offering this goat as a burnt offering. No skin conditions allowed. Next.

Second Person: I have brought a lamb to sacrifice.

PRIEST: Do I know you? You sound like a foreigner.

Second Person: Yes, I have lived among your people for several months. I believe in your God and want to honor him. This lamb is an offering for a vow I have taken.

PRIEST: You are welcome to do so, for God accepts all who believe in him and obey him. Your lamb is in perfect condition. Take it right over there by the altar. Next person, please step up.

Third Person: Here is my ram to be used as a peace offering. He's strong and healthy.

PRIEST: Well, he looks healthy enough. But why does he keep bumping into things?

Third Person: Oh, he's just clumsy. And maybe a little blind in one eye, but otherwise . . .

PRIEST: So, you're saying he's perfect except for the fact that he's half-blind? Take him away! You should know better than that. Who's next?

Fourth Person: I am a poor man, and all I have is this small sheep to offer. But I want to give it as a freewill offering to show the Lord how much I love him.

PRIEST: This sheep appears to be somewhat stunted, but since it's a freewill offering, God allows exceptions such as yours. Take your sheep over to be offered. (Speaking to the next person) Looks like you're the last one in line. What kind of offering do you want your bull to be?

Fifth Person: I'd like it to be a peace offering, so my family and I can share a meal with the priests and show honor to God.

PRIEST: Has this been a healthy animal—no injuries, deformities, or skin diseases?

Fifth Person: It has none of those things. I wanted to bring my very best bull.

PRIEST: Very well, take it over to the altar, and I'll see you later at the meal.

MAKE IT TRUE

Each of the following statements has a single word that makes it false. Find that word and correct it. Then check your answers against the lesson text.

1. God commanded that the Israelites redeem every secondborn.
2. The dedication of the firstborn was to be used to teach children about the Israelites' deliverance from bondage in Babylon.
3. When Mary's days of purification were completed, she and Joseph brought Jesus to Bethlehem to present him to the Lord.
4. Mary and Joseph offered the required sacrifice of three doves or pigeons.
5. Simeon was waiting for the consolation of Judah.
6. Simeon came to the temple by happenstance at the time Mary and Joseph were there with Jesus.
7. Simeon praised Mary after he took the infant Jesus in his arms.
8. Simeon acknowledged that God's salvation had been prepared in the ears of all.
9. According to Simeon, the child would provide a light for revelation to the Jews.
10. According to Simeon, the child would provide the glory of the Gentiles.

iStock

HONOR TO WHOM HONOR IS DUE

Anna “was very old” when she encountered the infant Jesus (Luke 2:36). We may conclude that Simeon was elderly as well, since he considered his life's work complete after holding the child (2:29). God honored both by allowing them enough time on earth to witness the arrival of the Messiah. In what ways can your church honor its faithful members of many years' standing? Jot ideas to the right. ☞

SEVEN WAYS TO BE A HYPOCRITE

Read the following statements made by a hypothetical teacher of the law or Pharisee. Match a verse or verses from today's two texts that set forth its contrast by Jesus.

Verse(s)

1. "That's Rabbi Benjamin to you!"
2. "That's my seat! You move down there."
3. "You can't really know how to live right until you learn to apply all our interpretations of the law."
4. "Watch out—you're stepping on my robe!"
5. "It's not my fault your husband died before paying off the loan to your house. Either pay up or vacate!"
6. "Be sure to follow my teachings, but be aware that a person in my position has to have certain exemptions."
7. "I just love to hear the large jangle of coins when I make one of my generous contributions to the treasury!"

Seven years is a long time in some ways, but a short time in others. The latter is the case of Jacob’s seven years of service to gain his bride Rachel: “they seemed like only a few days to him because of his love for her” (Genesis 29:20). # HUSBANDS AND WIVES

Solomon's lifestyle of having many wives stands in sharp contrast with God's picture of the ideal, godly marriage. What do these texts say about the ideal relationship?

SOLOMON'S WIVES

Solomon was a man of God, but also a man with a sinful weakness that he chose not to overcome. He enjoyed the blessings of righteousness, but he also suffered the consequences of sinfulness. Review Exodus 34:15, 16; Deuteronomy 7:1-4; 1 Kings 11:1-10; and Nehemiah 13:26 to answer these two questions.

ILLUSTRATIONS FOR TODAY

To what extent do the following statements about modern marriages serve to illustrate the relationship between Christians and their Lord? Rank-order them from 5 stars (best illustration of the five) to 1 star (least likely to illustrate—too many exceptions). Be prepared to explain your rankings.

_____ A. “Dirty laundry” created within a marriage can always be “cleaned up”—forgiven and forgotten.

_____ B. Any marriage, no matter how troubled, can be saved if both parties are willing.

_____ C. Love always redeems, that is, it is always ready to “buy back” what is valued.

_____ D. A marriage may have to hit rock bottom before one or both parties see the need for change.

_____ E. All relationships have times of brokenness; love is always the resolving factor.

MORE MIRACLES IN THE GOSPEL OF JOHN

Jesus' first miracle—turning water into wine—resulted in his disciples placing their faith in him. Indeed, John's purpose in recording such miraculous signs is that people might believe (John 20:30, 31). The list below notes other (but not all) miracles recorded in John's Gospel. Read the passages and fill in the blanks.

Passage	Miracle Performed	How People Reacted
John 4:46-54	_____	_____
John 5:1-18	_____	_____
John 6:1-14	_____	_____
John 9	_____	_____

When confronted with the evidence of Jesus' ability to perform miracles, how are the reactions of people today like and unlike the reactions of those who actually saw the results of Jesus' miracles? Jot your observations and experiences in that regard below.

BEYOND INITIAL BELIEF

Miracles should result in belief in Jesus, and that is John's goal (see John 20:30, 31). But staying at that stage is to remain "mere infants in Christ" (1 Corinthians 3:1). How do you get stronger and move beyond spiritual infancy? How can you help others do so as well? Jot ideas below.

Obstacles that hinder my spiritual growth: 	How I plan to overcome these obstacles:
Obstacles I have seen hinder the spiritual growth of others: 	What I can do to help others overcome their obstacles to spiritual growth:

How are you like Martha—confessing belief but still having doubts? Read and reflect on John 11:38-44 (see also Mark 9:24; John 11:1-38; 19:38–20:10). In the first column, write some statements of your beliefs about Christianity in general and Jesus in particular. In the second column, write statements that describe what is difficult for you to believe.

SELF-EXAMINATION

First Corinthians 11:27-29 indicates that Christians are to examine themselves so as not to participate in the Lord’s Supper without discernment. Use the space below to write out a prayer of self-examination in that regard. Keep it in your Bible for immediate reference prior to your next observance of the Lord’s Supper.

O Lord,

My sin hinders my discernment, but my sin is also the reason Christ instituted the Lord’s Supper before he died! As I take the loaf and the cup, I acknowledge the terrible inconsistency of harboring unconfessed sin, sins such as these:

_____

May I approach the loaf and the cup with gratitude of sins forgiven and resolve to sin no more. In the name of your Son, who makes both possible. Amen.

PROVIDE FOR THE POOR

Using Leviticus 23:22 as an impetus, identify specific ways you, your class, and/or your church can provide for the poor.

How We Can Apply This Today:

Leviticus 23:22a

“When you reap the harvest of your land, do not reap to the very edges of your field.”

Leviticus 23:22b

“or gather the gleanings of your harvest. Leave them for the poor and for the foreigner residing among you.”

PROPER ORDER

Only the first and seventh actions in the following list are in the correct order. Without looking at today's text, see if you can put the rest in the correct sequence, numbering them 2 through 6.

1. Aaron kills a bull of the sin offering for himself.
- ___ Aaron sprinkles the blood of the bull on the atonement cover.
- ___ Aaron sprinkles the blood of the goat on the atonement cover.
- ___ Aaron kills a goat as a sin offering for the Israelites.
- ___ Aaron burns incense to create smoke.
- ___ Aaron takes a censer of burning coals behind the curtain.
7. Aaron sprinkles blood on the altar to cleanse it.

PRAYER OF PRAISE

Using Hebrews 9:6-15 as a guide, fill in the blanks in the prayer below as a praise to God for the atonement available through the blood of Christ.

Heavenly Father,

I praise you for sin atonement available through Jesus. Instead of the blood of _____ and _____, you provided the greater and perfect substitute through the _____ of Christ. No longer does a high priest have to enter the _____.

Instead, Christ _____ himself to cleanse me from my sins.

Unlike the sacrifices offered on the Day of Atonement—sacrifices that had to be repeated yearly—Jesus' sacrifice happened _____ and provides an eternal _____.

In Jesus' precious name, amen.

DAYS TO REMEMBER

Identify which details below correspond with Passover (P), the Festival of Weeks (W), the Day of Atonement (A), and/or the Festival of Tabernacles (T). The “and/or” means that some statements will take more than one answer.

- _____ 1. Held during the first month
- _____ 2. Held during the seventh month
- _____ 3. Held seven Sabbaths after a different feast
- _____ 4. Held 50 days after a different feast
- _____ 5. Involved putting blood on doorposts
- _____ 6. Coincided with a grain harvest
- _____ 7. Involved living in temporary shelters seven days
- _____ 8. Involved sprinklings of blood
- _____ 9. Connected with the Festival of Unleavened Bread
- _____ 10. Also known as Pentecost
- _____ 11. Sacrificed one lamb or goat per household
- _____ 12. Involved a censer of burning coals and incense
