SONG OF THE PRODIGAL

Below are the lyrics to three stanzas, plus refrain, of the hymn "I've Wandered Far" (or, in some hymnals, "Lord, I'm Coming Home") by William J. Kirkpatrick. Keep these in your Bible to ponder as part of your daily devotions in the week ahead.

I've wandered far away from God, Now I'm coming home; The paths of sin too long I've trod, Lord, I'm coming home.

Coming home, coming home, Nevermore to roam, Open wide Thine arms of love, Lord, I'm coming home.

I've wasted many precious years, Now I'm coming home; I now repent with bitter tears, Lord, I'm coming home.

Coming home, coming home, Nevermore to roam, Open wide Thine arms of love, Lord, I'm coming home.

I'm tired of sin and straying, Lord, Now I'm coming home; I'll trust Thy love, believe Thy Word, Lord, I'm coming home.

Coming home, coming home, Nevermore to roam, Open wide Thine arms of love, Lord, I'm coming home.

THE TRUTH ABOUT ZACCHAEUS

A reporter for the Jericho Daily News got some of his facts wrong when he wrote about Zacchaeus's encounter with Jesus. Change one word in each sentence so that it has the correct information.

GRAND GESTURES

Thinking of the vow Zacchaeus made in Luke 19:8, what similar "grand gesture" could you make to show Jesus your gratitude for your salvation? Jot ideas below.

iStock

Lesson 1

Belief and Unbelief. Answers are obvious from the texts cited.

Desperation! The text is specific regarding the sense of desperation only for the father. Responses concerning the other four individuals and groups may vary in conclusions and will require some “sanctified imagination” on the part of the learners.

Lesson 2

“I Want to Do it Myself” Responses to the first two questions will be personal to the learner. A positive element of an “I want to do it myself” attitude is avoidance of slothfulness (Proverbs 12:27; Galatians 6:4; Hebrews 6:12; 2 Thessalonians 3:12; etc.). A negative element is the danger of pride (Daniel 4:28-37; Luke 12:16-21; etc.) Other responses are possible.

Handling Disappointment. Disappointment is evident in verse 22.

Lesson 3

Peter and Jesus. Regarding the middle column, learners are likely to see the following: immediate obedience (Mark 1:16-18), hardened heart (6:45-52), awareness of Jesus’ true identity (8:29), misunderstanding of Jesus’ mission (8:31-33), an “all-in for Jesus” outlook (10:28), extreme devotion (14:27-29), unawareness of what was about to happen to Jesus (14:32-41), a “not-all-in for Jesus” outlook (14:66-72). Entries in the rightmost column will be based on the personal experiences of the learner.

Memory Associations. Many responses are possible, but here are a few: garage door going up—“the curtain of the temple” is now torn (Mark 15:38), signifying the access we have to God through Christ; severe-weather alert—judgment is coming (Revelation 8:7); airplane overhead—Christ has ascended to Heaven; baby crying—we need to move on from being “infants in Christ” (1 Corinthians 3:1); cinnamon—“we are to God the pleasing aroma of Christ” (2 Corinthians 2:15); sneeze—we are to pray for the sick (James 5:15); siren—the sound of “the trumpet call of God” will signal Christ’s return (1 Thessalonians 4:16).

Lesson 4

Honoring the Dead. Many responses are possible for the first question. Some possibilities: flowers and/or flags on graves, Memorial Day observances, eulogies, and obituaries. Responses to the second question will be personal to the learners. The three texts list actions and attempted actions to treat Jesus’ dead body “in accordance with Jewish burial customs” (John 19:40).

Honoring the Living One. Many responses are possible.

Lesson 5

Jesus Heals at a Distance. Matthew 15:21-28: A Canaanite woman (a Gentile) persistently asked Jesus to heal her daughter; Jesus admired her faith and said her daughter was healed; she returned home to find it so. Luke 7:1-10: A centurion sent “elders of the Jews” to Jesus to “come and heal his servant,” but changed the request to just “say the word”; Jesus was astonished at his faith; the servant was healed. John 4:46-54: An official asked Jesus to come heal his son; Jesus said, “Go, your son will live”; the official believed and found his son healed.

Lesson 6

Jesus and the Pharisees. Luke 5:17-26, blasphemy, since only God can forgive sins; 5:27-31, eats and drinks with tax collectors and sinners; 5:33-39, disciples do not fast; 6:1-5, disciples violate the Sabbath by picking heads of grain; 6:6-11, healed on the Sabbath.

Lesson 7

All responses are personal to the learners.

Lesson 10

What Do You Know About Leprosy? 1–T; 2–T; 3–F (those infected typically show no symptoms for five years or more); 4–T; 5–F (leprosy is extremely rare in these countries); 6–T; 7–F (it also affects the nerves and respiratory tract); 8–T.

Lesson 11

Character Analysis (answers may vary):

Pharisee—blameless, fasts, honorable, hypocrite, judgmental, lawkeeper, legalist, respected, self-righteous, showy, smug, superior, tither.

Tax Collector—ashamed, downcast, extortionist, humble, mercy-seeking, reviled, self-effacing, sinful, unjust, unpopular. Note: “lover of money” could apply to either or both. The tax collector went home “justified.”

Lesson 12

Childlike or Childish?

Childlike—innocent, loving, obedient, open, teachable, trusting, unspoiled; Childish—impulsive, needy, pouting, rude, selfish, stubborn
