

Keep It Short

Our lesson text today (Romans 12:9-21) gives us instructions on how to hold on to what is good in an evil world (v. 9). Specifically, Paul tells us how to do good to other believers (vv. 10-13), to the world at large (vv. 14-16), and even to those who see themselves as our enemies (vv. 17-20)! We have created “bookends” for each section of text. Work with your group to try to summarize each verse in two words. Many different answers are possible. Just be willing to explain your responses!
