

No One Like Jesus!

In Revelation 5, John describes the attributes of Jesus in symbolic language and images. Read the Bible text carefully, and try to match John's descriptions to the explanation of them.

- _____ 1. The Lamb appeared to have been slain (v. 6).
 - _____ 2. The Lamb took the sealed scroll from the one on the throne (v. 7).
 - _____ 3. The elders with harps and bowls of incense fell down before the Lamb (v. 8).
 - _____ 4. The Lamb purchased people from every tribe, language, people, and nation (v. 9).
 - _____ 5. The Lamb made his people a kingdom and priests to reign on earth (v. 10).
 - _____ 6. The Lamb is praised by beings in both heaven and earth (vv. 11-13a).
 - _____ 7. The glory and power of the Lamb will last forever (vv. 13b, 14).
-
- a. By his death and resurrection, Jesus became qualified to hold the fate of humankind in his hands.
 - b. Since only God is eternal and is worthy of worship, Jesus is obviously the divine Son of God.
 - c. Jesus is worthy of receiving prayers and songs of praise.
 - d. Jesus takes ordinary people and elevates them to a position of great responsibility and authority.
 - e. Jesus is the savior of the entire world, not just people of a certain nation or ethnicity.
 - f. Like a lamb was slain to atone for sin in the Old Testament, Jesus sacrificed himself to pay for our sins.
 - g. Jesus is not only superior to people, but he is superior even to angels.
-