

Poetry Repair

The Lord promised to remain at Abram's side,
But Abram fretted. And then he replied,
What good is it that
I grow rich and fat,
Leaving no descendants after I die?

Genesis 15:1-3

It was clear that God's promise of kin
Stretched Abram's comprehension.
So God showed Abram the stars in the sky
And said, your descendants will number that high!
And Abram trusted the Lord once again.

Genesis 15:4-6

That night was a sacrifice made,
And God's power clearly displayed.
Your tribes of offspring so grand
Will possess Canaan's rich land.
Of that you can be unafraid!

Genesis 15:17-21