Encouragement for Marriage

Write a note to a couple in your church who has been married for more than 25 years, acknowledging what you appreciate about their marriage. Or write a note to a newlywed couple, encouraging them to make their marriage a lifelong commitment. You may want to use some of the Scripture thoughts below in your note:

- The power of a godly example: 1 Peter 3:1-7
- Husband and wife belong to each other: 1 Corinthians 7:1-5
- The honor and purity of marriage: Hebrews 13:4
- Mutual love and respect: Ephesians 5:21-33

RE-CREATION

Following the flood, God gave instructions to Noah and his family on how to re-create life on earth. Mark out the sentences below that do not describe the re-creation in Genesis 9.

1. God told humans to populate the earth.
2. Both plants and animals are to be food for humans.
3. There was an image of the tree of life in the middle of the rainbow.
4. God established a covenant with humanity and all living creatures.
5. Humans took care of the garden.
6. God set a rainbow in the sky as a sign of His covenant.
7. God created the rainbow in His own image.

A SACRED PROMISE

God used a rainbow as a symbol of His promise to Noah—and to us. What symbol would you use to represent your promise back to God of your commitment to be faithful to Him? Would your symbol feature one or more hands? feet? animals? banners? buildings? trees? something else? Sketch your symbol below.

_____ A. God confounds the language so people can’t understand one another.
_____ B. God comes down to see what the people are doing.
_____ C. Everyone speaks the same language.

_____ I. God scatters the people over all the earth.

MY OWN BABEL

Was there ever a time when you exhibited the same attitude as the people of Babel in attempting to “make a name” for yourself? If so, how did things turn out? Read the proverb to the right, then fill in the scroll as a confession to God.

Believing God

Both Abraham and Sarah were confronted with believing that God could do an “impossible” task. But the God who established the laws of nature also can set those laws aside. Which of the following “impossibilities” do people find most laughable and difficult to believe? Check off the ones below that most unbelievers would consider to be absolutely impossible.

___ God created the physical universe from nothing.
___ The whole world was covered by a flood as God’s judgment on evil.
___ The nation of Israel was delivered from slavery in Egypt by many mighty miracles.
___ Servants of God in the Old Testament raised several people from the dead.
___ God’s Spirit enabled men to speak and write His words with absolute accuracy.
___ God became a man in the person of Jesus.
___ Jesus demonstrated power to know all and do all during His life on earth.
___ Jesus, killed by crucifixion, rose from the dead bodily.
___ A person who is forgiven by God will inherit eternal life in Heaven.

Read John 20:24-29. What similarities do you see between the disbeliefs of Sarah and Thomas?

How do unbelievers become part of us who “have not seen, and yet have believed” (John 20:29)?
“God Bless You!”

When “God bless you!” becomes no more than an automatic response to a sneeze, it suffers a great loss in meaning. Before considering today’s texts in Genesis 21 and 26 regarding blessings on Isaac and Ishmael, look up the texts noted below and fill in the blanks.

Who Called for a Blessing? Who Was to Be Blessed?
1. ___________________ Genesis 14:18-20 ___________________
2. ___________________ Genesis 27:27-30 ___________________
3. ___________________ Deuteronomy 33:1, 13-17 ________________
4. ___________________ Ruth 2:19, 20 ____________________

Be prepared to compare and contrast the four blessings above with the two blessings in today’s text! Jot your initial impressions below.

Witnessing to the Descendants of Ishmael

Muslims (who are adherents of the religion of Islam) claim Abraham’s son Ishmael as their legacy (1 Chronicles 1:29). To improve your ability to present Jesus Christ as the Son of God to Muslims, do some Internet or library research on the following questions in the week ahead.

1. How does Islam’s view of Jesus Christ contradict the Christian understanding?

2. How does Islam’s view of works of law contradict the Christian understanding?

3. How does Islam’s view of grace contradict the Christian understanding?
When and Where

Jacob, surprised by God at Luz, decided that Bethel (meaning “house of God”) would be a better name for the place. Although we know that God is not limited to place or time (John 4:21-24; Acts 17:24), there seem to be times when and places where we sense the presence of God in special ways. Recall some of those as you jot your recollections below.

Time(s):

Place(s):

Why and How

What has been your personal experience regarding why and how you have sensed God’s presence in a special way? The possibilities below may help your recall. How did your life change as a result?

Sensing God’s confronting you for wrong thinking or wrongdoing (compare Job 38:1, 2; Acts 9:4).

Sensing God’s calling you to serve (compare Exodus 3:10; Isaiah 6:8; Acts 9:6).

Sensing God’s holiness (compare Isaiah 6:5; Revelation 4:8).

Sensing God’s power (compare Mark 4:41).

As a result of this personal experience, my life changed this way:
Talking with God

Today’s text in Exodus 3 is a record of an important conversation between God and one called to serve Him. In the top two dialogue balloons, summarize what God said to Moses and what Moses replied to God.

God said

Moses replied

Now ponder what you think God has been saying to you most intensely of late. Write in your response.

God seems to be saying to me

I will respond

Oppression and Deliverance

As you read the following four passages, consider the Christian’s role in deliverance from oppression today:

“The Spirit of the Lord . . . hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised, to preach the acceptable year of the Lord” (Luke 4:18, 19).

“That through death [Jesus] might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil; and deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage” (Hebrews 2:14, 15).

“God anointed Jesus . . . with the Holy Ghost and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; for God was with him” (Acts 10:38).

“But now we are delivered from the law, that being dead wherein we were held; that we should serve in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter” (Romans 7:6).

What role is God calling you to fill as a messenger of His deliverance? Who are the “oppressed” for whom you have opportunity to be this messenger? What is keeping you from the work? Jot ideas below.
EGYPTIANS FALL, PART 1

Today’s text anticipates “part 1” of the falling of many Egyptians: the deaths of their firstborn. (We will see part 2 in next week’s text.) Reconstruct the “fallen phrase” below to reveal the Lord’s intentions in this regard. The letters arranged vertically below the puzzle can be used ONLY in the squares directly above them, one each. Do not put letters in the four squares that have punctuation marks.

A NEW DAY, A NEW WAY

Paul spoke of the “leaven” of sin that needed to be addressed when he said, “Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even Christ our passover is sacrificed for us” (1 Corinthians 5:7). What “leaven” do you need to rid yourself of right now?

I hereby will use this image as a visual aid in the coming week to remind myself of the need to “purge out” attitudes, speech, and behavior that are inconsistent with my new life in Christ.

EGYPTIANS FALL, PART 2

We saw part 1 of the falling of the Egyptians in last week’s lesson. They fall again in this week’s study. Reconstruct the “fallen phrase” below to reveal what happened. The letters arranged vertically below the puzzle can be used ONLY in the squares directly above them, one each. Do not put letters in the four squares that have punctuation marks.

A TIME TO SING

Immediately following the events in today’s text, Moses led the Israelites in a song of joy and praise. See Exodus 15:1-18. Our own salvation in Jesus should always elicit this kind of joyful praise! During your devotional time over the next seven days, select a hymn, song, or chorus to parallel each of the following expressions from Moses’ song. Sing it to the Lord your Savior!

Theme My Song

Monday “He hath triumphed gloriously” (Exodus 15:1) ____________________________

Tuesday “He is my God, ... and I will exalt him” (Exodus 15:2) ____________________

Wednesday “Thy right hand, O Lord, is become glorious in power” (Exodus 15:6) __________

Thursday “Thou hast overthrown them that rose up against thee” (Exodus 15:7) __________

Friday “Thou in thy mercy hast led forth the people” (Exodus 15:13) ________________

Saturday “The [pagan] people shall hear, and be afraid” (Exodus 15:14) ______________

Sunday “The Lord shall reign for ever and ever” (Exodus 15:18) ______________________
“ON THE GO” WORSHIP

Today’s text in Exodus 40 pictures the final preparation for a focal point of worship as the people of Israel were “on the go.” The portable tabernacle was ideal by God’s design. What does this have to say about your own “on the go” worship?

A. How do you prepare yourself for worship when “on the go”?
B. How do you deal with distractions to worship while you’re traveling?
C. What reminds you of God’s presence when “on the go”?
D. How do you go about finding places suitable for worship while traveling?
E. How can you do better in reflecting God’s presence when “on the go”?

AS THE LORD COMMANDED

Today’s text records the phrases “all that the Lord commanded” or “as the Lord commanded” seven times. This speaks of Moses’ diligence in obeying God’s instructions precisely. What about your level of obedience? See if you can recall seven things you have done exactly as the Lord commanded from Scripture.

As the Lord commanded, I _________________________.
As the Lord commanded, I _________________________.
As the Lord commanded, I _________________________.
As the Lord commanded, I _________________________.
As the Lord commanded, I _________________________.
As the Lord commanded, I _________________________.
As the Lord commanded, I _________________________.

Next to each, write a Scripture reference that speaks to the specific demand that the Lord makes on your life concerning what you have written. Finally, what is one area where your obedience is not as complete as it should be? Jot that problem below, and think of a Scripture that can help you complete your obedience.

Hidden message: God counts belief as righteousness

Lesson 8
“God Bless You!”
1. Melchizedek, king of Salem / Abram; 2. Isaac / Jacob ended up with the blessing although Esau was the one intended to be blessed; 3. Moses / “Joseph,” referring to the descendants of that man, who constitute the two tribes of Ephraim and Manasseh; 4. Naomi / Boaz.

Witnessing to the Descendants of Ishmael
1. Muslims do not accept the fact that Jesus was God incarnate and that He was crucified and rose from the dead.
2 & 3. Since Muslims do not recognize Christ’s payment of sin’s penalty through His death, the Christian concept of grace (as in Romans 5:12-21, etc.) is absent from Islam. Therefore the Muslim’s understandings of the basis of God’s mercy, the effects of humanity’s works of lawkeeping, etc., are very different from those of the Christian.
