The Day of the Lord

Although we can affirm every day to be “the day of the Lord” in a general sense, the Bible depicts special days with that designation. Look up the texts below and check the boxes for the correct time reference from a modern perspective. You may need to examine the broader context for each.

God’s Clear Intentions

Zephaniah plainly declares God’s intentions regarding sinfulness. Look through all 18 verses of Zephaniah 1 and summarize each declaration below. You should end up with nine entries.

God says he will . . .

Considering the declarations as a whole, how are God’s clear intentions for the people of Zephaniah’s day relevant to us right now? Jot your conclusions below.
BIG LITTLE WORDS

Think of some little words that imply big impact and consequence. In that regard, put a two-letter word, a three-letter word, a four-letter word, and a five-letter word on the following lines.

______  ______  ______  ______
______  ______  ______  ______  ______

Compare and discuss your choices with a classmate. Then look at the beginning word of today’s lesson text and write its opening word below.

______  ______  ______! In what ways is this a “big little word”?

THAT DAY IS COMING

The title of today’s lesson reveals God’s plan: the day of his judgment will surely come. Read the predictions of Zephaniah 3:8. What personal and universal consequences are expressed or implied there? Jot discoveries below. (You might not need all five lines, or you may need to add more lines.)

1. ____________________________________________
2. ____________________________________________
3. ____________________________________________
4. ____________________________________________
5. ____________________________________________

How will the reality of God’s pending judgment influence your daily living and your message to the world?

BEHLMU ___ ___ ___ ___ ___ ___ ___ ___ ___ ___ ___ ___ ___ ___ 1 2 3 4 5

How do you plan to move your lowest score to the next higher number? Jot ideas below.

FEEL LIKE A REMNANT?

Which of the following do you sense in yourself (perhaps after being treated as such by others)?

___ I have lost most of any value I previously had.
___ I am unattractive and therefore rejected.
___ I frequently feel as alone as Elijah did in 1 Kings 19:10.
___ I am frequently “left on the shelf” as unusable.
___ I am a valued part of Christ’s glorious church (1 Corinthians 12:27).

If you did not mark the last one, why not? How can you change the negatives you selected? Jot ideas below.

THE LIES PEOPLE TELL THEMSELVES

Today’s text describes various behaviors that result from substituting lies for the truth of God (Romans 1:25), which produces a twisted mind (1:28). Below, list statements you have heard people use to justify illegal, immoral, or unethical behavior.

What consequences have you suffered or witnessed others suffer as a result of such lies?

GLORIFY GOD

The evils listed in Romans 1:24-32 result in and from failing to glorify God. Fill in the lines below for personal improvement in this regard.

To glorify God by my behavior in the week ahead,
I will do less __________ and more __________.

To glorify God by my thoughts in the week ahead,
I will do less __________ and more __________.

To glorify God by my words in the week ahead,
I will do less __________ and more __________.
The Laws of God

Romans 2:21-23 echoes what Jesus taught about the law. Fill in the blanks to identify how Jesus added to and/or clarified the law with which his Jewish audience was familiar.

How do Jesus’ additions and clarifications address the inside of a person (thoughts and attitudes) as it relates to the outside of a person (behavior)?

Circumcision of the Heart

After reading Romans 2:29, read Deuteronomy 10:16; 30:6; Jeremiah 4:4; and Ezekiel 36:26, 27. Then complete the three steps below.

Step 1
Inside the heart, note thoughts, feelings, actions, and attitudes that will help you to follow Christ more fully.

Step 2
Outside the heart, note hindrances to your walk with Christ that need to be cut away.

Step 3
Below, write a prayer for God’s help and the Spirit’s guidance in the circumcision of your heart.

The Impact of Sin

Review the sins listed in Romans 3:11-18, paying special attention to how your own sin has affected (and infected) other people. Below, write a note of apology and repentance in that regard, asking for forgiveness. Your note can be to a specific person or to humanity in general. (This is for your private use; your teacher will not collect these.)

___________________________________________________________________________________

Next, write a prayer for God’s help in being honest about how your sins have affected others, even as he forgives those sins.

Know Your Fears

From the choices given, select the one that correctly identifies the phobia named.

___ 1. Octophobia: fear of (a) the month of October; (b) the figure 8; (c) octopi.
___ 2. Gelotophobia: fear of (a) being laughed at; (b) gelatin dessert; (c) bridges.
___ 3. Dendrophobia: fear of (a) trees; (b) dentists; (c) teenagers.
___ 4. Tachophobria: fear of (a) being touched; (b) anything sticky; (c) speed.
___ 5. Obesophobia: fear of (a) obesity; (b) mirrors; (c) oboes.
___ 6. Coulrophobia: fear of (a) vegetables; (b) clowns; (c) priests.
___ 7. Astraphobia: fear of (a) cats; (b) flying; (c) thunder and lightning.
___ 8. Chromophobia: fear of (a) clocks; (b) colors; (c) chrome.
___ 9. Philophobia: fear of (a) falling in love; (b) Greek pastry; (c) people from Philadelphia.
___ 10. Venustaphobia: fear of (a) Venus flytraps; (b) meteors; (c) beautiful women.

Name some common fears:

Overcome Your Fears

Write in the box below the verse from today’s text that you find most useful in helping you overcome fears. Then post it in a prominent place this week to remind you of God’s all-encompassing love for you.

How will you share this verse in the week ahead with someone struggling with fear?
SONS OF THE PROMISE—AND NOT

See if you can fill in the blanks for Abraham’s first two wives and their descendants without looking up the Scripture references.

- Abraham
  - (First wife; Genesis 11:29; 17:19)
  - (Second wife; Genesis 16:3)
  - (Wife; Genesis 24:67)
  - (Son of the promise; Genesis 17:19)
  - (Son; Genesis 16:11; 17:20, 21)
  - (Older son; Genesis 25:19-34)
  - (Son of the promise; Genesis 25:19-34)

1. What was included in the promise that God made to Abraham?

2. How was that promise fulfilled through the two “sons of the promise” above?

SPIRITUAL FAMILY TREE

Write in two of the frames the names of two people who have helped you on your spiritual walk.

In the remaining frame, write the name of one non-family member whom you can guide in spiritual growth.

Thinking of Paul’s relationship to Timothy, whom Paul referred to as “my true son in the faith” (1 Timothy 1:2), how will you provide this guidance? Jot ideas below.

CLEAR AS MUD?

An oxymoron is “a combination of words that have opposite or very different meanings.” Unscramble the oxymorons below. Then look at Romans 12:1 to see if you detect an oxymoron there.

1. romin criiss
2. diquil sag
3. lod sewn

4. nope creets
5. garler afhl
6. objum prishm

The two-word phrase in Romans 12:1 that could be considered an oxymoron is ______________________  ______________________

WORDS OF WISDOM

Using today’s lesson text, how would you counsel the following Christians?

Beth: “I would really like to serve more at church, but my time and energy are stretched between taking care of my elderly parents and helping my widowed daughter with her children. I’m afraid that God is unhappy with me because so much of what I do isn’t very ‘spiritual.’”

Sam: “I have my Christian friends and church activities, but I also hang out with buddies I’ve known all my life who aren’t believers. I’m pretty good at compartmentalizing my life, but sometimes I feel like I’m two different people depending on whom I’m with.”

Lesson 1

The Day of the Lord. The three New Testament references are obviously all future, referring to the day of Jesus’ return. The Old Testament references are subject to much scholarly debate.

God’s Clear Intentions. The nine declarations in Zephaniah 1 are recognized by the statement “I will,” as found in verses 2, 3 (twice), 4 (twice), 8, 9, 12, and 17. The consequence of sin is punishment.

Lesson 2

Big Little Words. Many responses are possible for the first four lines. The three-letter word in today’s text that indicates serious consequences is woel.

That Day Is Coming. See commentary on Zephaniah 3:8.

Lesson 3

Remnant Characteristics. Pure (v. 9), Glad (v. 14), Truthful (v. 13), Confident (v. 12), Humble (v. 12).

Lesson 4

The Lies People Tell Themselves. Possible responses (among many): Everyone else is doing it. I deserve it. It’s my body; I can do with it what I choose. I won’t get caught.

Lesson 5

A right inward attitude toward God and others will foster right actions that surpass the letter of the law.

Lesson 6

Old Testament References. Psalm 5:9 Romans 3:13a—heart is filled with malice, etc. Psalm 10:7 Romans 3:14—trouble and evil are under his tongue. Psalm 14:1-3 Romans 3:10-12—they are corrupt, etc. Psalm 36:1 Romans 3:18—message of God in my heart concerning the sinfulness of the wicked. Psalm 53:1-3 Romans 3:10-12—fool says in his heart, “There is no God,” etc. Psalm 140:3 Romans 3:13b—make their tongues as sharp as a serpent’s. Ecclesiastes 7:20 Romans 3:10—no one who does what is right and never sins. Isaiah 59:7, 8 Romans 3:15-17—there is no justice in their paths, etc.

Lesson 7

The Sobering Reminder

Phrase: For all have sinned.
