DISCIPLINE DEFICIENCY

Take no more than one minute to give quick first impressions:

- In the Most Christians column, rank-order the five listed disciplines from 1 (meaning “most deficient, most improvement needed”) to 5 (meaning “least deficient, least needing improvement”)
- Then do the same for yourself in the Me column

	Most Christians	Me
Meditating on God's Word Daily (Psalm 119:11)
Being Thankful (1 Thessalonians 5:18)
Giving (1 Corinthians 16:2)
Serving (John 13:14-15)
Prayer (Romans 12:12)

How will you work on your most deficient area in the week ahead? What role will this play in your increased obedience to the Lord? _____

PROPHET OF WISDOM

Lesson 3, 2 Kings 22:14-20, KJV

FIVE MILESTONES OF 1 AND 2 KINGS

The books of 1 and 2 Kings together can be said to record five major milestones, appearing below in alphabetical order. Without looking in your Bible, number them in chronological order from 1 to 5, with number 1 being the earliest.

- ____. Judah exiled
- ____. Prophets warn
- ____. Solomon enthroned
- ____. Temple completed

MANY SOURCES

Make entries in the four intersections as the column and row headers suggest. Use general categories (such as “newspapers”) rather than specific designations (such as “the Union City Gazette”).

THE FAITH-IN-ACTION PREACHER

Lesson 6, Ezra 10:1-12, KJV

WHAT WOULD YOU SAY?

Ezra's bold action requires us to think carefully about why he did what he did. How would you answer someone who said the following?

1. "The remedy for this sin was too harsh!" _____
_____

2. "Ezra acted beyond his level of authority!" _____
_____

3. "The people were coerced into obeying the will of a dictator!" _____
_____

Compare and contrast your answers with another class member.

STINKIN' THINKIN'

Each of the following statements reflects a common attitude among some toward the problem of sin. How do the examples from today's passage refute the thinking behind each one? Jot your reactions in the space provided.

1. "What I did may be wrong, but I'm certainly not the first person to have done it! Cut me some slack!"
_____
_____

2. "Telling the truth about my sin would cause too much hardship and pain for others I love. I lie to protect them."
_____
_____

3. "Habits are habits, and sometimes they're impossible to break. Give me some time while I work on this."
_____
_____

4. "I've prayed about this, and I know God understands."
_____
_____

5. "Sin, sin, sin . . . all you Christians do is fret about sin! Why can't you just live and let live?"
_____
_____

6. "What I do in the privacy of my home is my business, and mine alone. You take care of your own relationship with God and let me worry about myself."
_____
_____

Put a star beside any sentence you may have spoken in the past or any sentence that reflects your thinking today. How does today's study help you change your thinking?

THE RESTORING BUILDER

Lesson 7, Nehemiah 2:11-20, KJV

IT'S A SECRET!

Read today's text, watching for statements of Nehemiah's decision to keep some things secret. In the space below, jot down the verse references or particular phrases that demonstrate that decision.

“IT IS WELL”

Sing the hymn below.

When peace, like a river, attendeth my way,
When sorrows like sea billows roll;
Whatever my lot, Thou has taught me to say,
It is well, it is well, with my soul.

[Refrain]

*It is well, (it is well),
With my soul, (with my soul);
It is well, it is well, with my soul.*

—Horatio G. Spafford (1828–1888)

Do you know the tragic story of the writer, Horatio G. Spafford?

SPEAKING TRUTH TO POWER

Lesson 9, 1 Kings 22:15-23, 26-28, KJV

BEING TRUTHFUL TO POWER

Scenario 1

A supervisor asks an employee to pad a bill to a client for services not performed. The supervisor notes that clients never check their invoices carefully. Thus they'll never notice that "we didn't do all this stuff." How should the Christian employee—who at age 59 is desperate to keep his job, health insurance, etc.—react?

Scenario 2

A college freshman who is a Christian is working nights at a restaurant. He is about to throw out uneaten bread that has been on customers' tables, per health department rules. The boss stops him and says, "Just put the pieces that look like they haven't been touched back in the bread drawer; the health department won't catch us on this." How should the employee react?

SPEAKING TRUTH WITH GRACE

Scenario A

A Sunday school teacher is having lunch with a friend, who is a member of his class. The friend secretly believes the teacher should give up the class. For one, the teacher has made several statements that don't square with what the Bible teaches. Furthermore, the lessons seem poorly prepared. How does the friend broach this issue with the teacher, if at all? Should he first speak with a member of church leadership? Why, or why not?

Scenario B

A church elder discovers that the senior minister has been viewing pornography on the church's computer. The elder knows that if this becomes public, several families will quit coming if the minister steps down, but several other families will leave if the minister doesn't resign. What should the elder say, and how and to whom should he say it? In what order should those people be informed—all elders first as a group, the minister first individually, etc.? Why?

Scenario C

Four women who live on the same block are getting together for lunch. One of them, a Christian, is new to the neighborhood and eager to get things off to a good start as she makes friends. At some point, the neighbor who invited her to lunch says, "Well, my husband and I quit going to church years ago. We believe in God, of course, but church just doesn't seem necessary." How does the Christian respond?

OFFERING HOPE FOR THE FUTURE

Lesson 10, Isaiah 29:13-24, KJV

GOD'S "WOE TO" WARNINGS

Today's text is part of a section of sermons that warn of judgment. Browse these sermons quickly and list up to five words for each sermon that indicate their contents.

Isaiah 28	_____	_____	_____	_____	_____
Isaiah 29	_____	_____	_____	_____	_____
Isaiah 30	_____	_____	_____	_____	_____
Isaiah 31	_____	_____	_____	_____	_____
Isaiah 33	_____	_____	_____	_____	_____

How is the sermon in Isaiah 29 similar to and different from the others?

PUZZLE ANSWER _____

Jot down two or three examples of situations that support the premise of this sentence.

PREACHING DOOM

Lesson 11, Jeremiah 38:14-23, KJV

FIXING FALSEHOODS

Each of the following statements is false in some way. You are to (1) cite the passage from today's text that contradicts the sentence below and (2) reword the sentence to fix the falsehood.

1. Zedekiah was firm in his decision to kill Jeremiah.

---

2. Zedekiah and Jeremiah had no one-on-one conversations with each other.

---

3. Jeremiah had complete trust in Zedekiah.

---

4. Jeremiah encouraged Zedekiah to stand firm in resisting the foreign invaders of Jerusalem.

---

5. Zedekiah's greatest fear was that the residents of Jerusalem who were not yet taken captive would think less of him.

---

6. Jeremiah prophesied that Zedekiah would escape the Babylonians.

---

THREE CONFRONTATIONS

Work with one or two classmates to complete this chart.

Reference	Summary of what Zedekiah said	Summary of Jeremiah's response

Jeremiah 38:1-13
Jeremiah 38:14-28

PREACHING TO THE EXILES

Lesson 12, Ezekiel 18:1-9, 30-32, KJV

SINS OF THE FATHERS

Make a list of sins Ezekiel told his people to avoid as expressed in Ezekiel 18:5-9. (For comparison, see verses 10-13 and 15-17.) Use the following chart to help you think these through.

Verse	Sins Avoided	Effect of these sins on children of the parents who commit them	Examples of these sins today
6
7

Now place a star beside the sin that has had a negative effect on you because of the way you saw it as a child among family members or others who influenced you.

In the space provided, jot three steps you have taken or could take to eliminate from your life the sin you marked above.

1. _____ 2. _____ 3. _____

PREACHING TO ENEMIES

Lesson 13, Jonah 3, KJV

WHAT DOES IT SAY?

Work with a partner to unscramble the words below.

NGAHEC PPNESHA NEWH ETH ANIP FO HET SUTATS OQU

Discuss with your partner how you have seen this sentence true in your life or in history. What does it tell you about why change is sometimes so difficult to achieve?

Lesson 9

Being Truthful to Power:

Scenario 1—A good strategy is to get the boss to come to the conclusion on his own that his request is unwise. One possible way of achieving this is through use of questions. One might be to ask politely, "Boss, do you realize that if I would lie for you, I would also lie to you?"

Scenario 2—Asking a question as above, modified to the situation, could be a good approach. Another approach is to suggest an alternative. Example: "Here's an idea, boss: how about we use it for making the bread pudding, which won't violate the health department rules? That way it won't go to waste."

Speaking Truth with Grace:

Scenario A—Gently probing questions can result in the truth coming from the lips of the teacher rather than from those of the inquisitor. One possibility is to ask simply, "How do you think the class is going?" The teacher may jump on that as an opportunity to express inadequacies, etc., which will result to indicate which way the conversation should be directed.

Scenario B—One possible approach might be to present to a fellow elder or even to the senior minister himself this hypothetical question: "Suppose I discovered that a fellow Christian was using pornography, what should I do?" The tone and content of the reply will guide how the rest of the conversation might proceed.

Scenario C—Since future lunch gatherings are likely, a very low key approach might bring the best solution for the long-term. Rather than quickly pulling out a verbal Hebrews 10:25 and quoting it, an inquiry such as "I'd like to hear more about the journey that led you to that conclusion" may be better at keeping the lines of communication open. Consider how the old saying, "Seek first not to be understood, but to understand" applies.
