

A New Perspective

We have all had strongly negative feelings about someone, and yet there are people who love that person. Our opinion about a person can change when we gain a new perspective. When it comes to anyone we dislike, it would be great to get God's perspective.

In the following scenarios, come up with something that would cause you to gain a new perspective that would make you change from opposing or refusing something to supporting it.

What new perspective would cause you to...

...buy something not on your grocery list?

...buy something offered to you by a telemarketer?

...give to a fundraiser or crowdsourcing campaign?

...make an unplanned overseas trip tomorrow?

...vote for a candidate outside your party?

...give $1,000 to someone in financial need?

...bring a homeless person into your house?

...reconcile with an old adversary?
