Activity Pages

Fall Quarter 2021
Celebrating God
These Activity Pages Are Designed To:
- Engage students in a way that lecture and open-ended discussion don’t.
- Gain insight on what has been learned and what hasn’t.
- Encourage students to learn from one another and build vital relationships, in keeping with Proverbs 27:17 and Galatians 6:2.

Tips for Using Activity Pages:
- Instructions are on each lesson’s “Involvement Learning” page (for teachers) and Activity Page (for students).
- Use these pages as optional alternatives for “Involvement Learning” activities.
- Limit individual work time and focus on facilitating discussion among learners.
- Encourage students to complete take-home work by discussing their results in the next class session.

Maximize Group Activity Time!
- Instead of viewing group activities as empty time for you as the teacher, look for opportunities to encourage and challenge your students.
- Pray silently during the activity for the participants’ spiritual growth! Pray for them by name, calling on the Lord to bless each person.
- Circulate among the groups of learners and observe their interactions to discover your learners’ level of spiritual maturity.
- Pray that the Spirit will fall on your classroom, equipping your students with knowledge and filling them with passion to boldly proclaim the good news.
Praise with Music

Lesson 1, Exodus 15:11-21, NIV

The Problems Before the Praise

The praise in today’s text came only after God’s people were terrified for their lives! In the spaces below, work with a partner to list the events that caused confusion or fear before the praise.

A. Exodus 14:1-4 ____________________________________________________________________
B. Exodus 14:5-9 ____________________________________________________________________
C. Exodus 14:10-14 ____________________________________________________________________
D. Exodus 14:15-20 ____________________________________________________________________
E. Exodus 14:21-31 ____________________________________________________________________

In the space below, jot down one problem that caused you to fear until God helped you with the problem—and then you praised him for it. Share this with your study partner.

In the space below, jot down one problem you’re facing today. How does the above study, combined with your own experience with God, strengthen your courage to praise him even though the problem is not yet solved?

His Love Lasts My Whole Life

After describing each mighty act of God in Psalm 136, the psalmist uses the phrase “His love endures forever.” What has God done that causes you to say the same thing? Write your own psalm of praise by filling in the three blanks below. Time limit of one minute.

God gave me __________________________________________________________________________.
His love endures forever.

God rescued me from ____________________________________________________________________.
His love endures forever.

God sustained me when ____________________________________________________________________.
His love endures forever.
NEW TESTAMENT WORSHIP

Work with classmates to complete this listing. The “other” entries at the bottom offer you opportunities to include additional texts not listed.

Matthew 20:29-34
As Jesus and his disciples were leaving Jericho, a large crowd followed him. Two blind men were sitting by the roadside, and when they heard that Jesus was going by, they shouted, “Lord, Son of David, have mercy on us!”

Mark 10:46-52
Then they came to Jericho. As Jesus and his disciples, together with a large crowd, were leaving the city, a blind man, Bartimaeus (which means “son of Timaeus”), was sitting by the roadside begging. When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout, “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!”

Luke 18:35-43
As Jesus approached Jericho, a blind man was sitting by the roadside begging. When he heard the crowd going by, he asked what was happening. They told him, “Jesus of Nazareth is passing by.”
He called out, “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!”

The crowd rebuked them and told them to be quiet, but they shouted all the louder, “Lord, Son of David, have mercy on us!”

Many rebuked him and told him to be quiet, but he shouted all the more, “Son of David, have mercy on me!”

Those who led the way rebuked him and told him to be quiet, but he shouted all the more, “Son of David, have mercy on me!”

Jesus stopped and called them.
Jesus stopped and said, “Call him.”
So they called to the blind man, “Cheer up! On your feet! He’s calling you.”

Jesus stopped and ordered the man to be brought to him.

Throwing his cloak aside, he jumped to his feet and came to Jesus.

When he came near, Jesus asked him,

“What do you want me to do for you?” he asked.
“Lord,” they answered, “we want our sight.”

“What do you want me to do for you?” Jesus asked him.
The blind man said, “Rabbi, I want to see.”

Jesus said to him, “Receive your sight; your faith has healed you.”

Jesus had compassion on them and touched their eyes. Immediately they received their sight and followed him.

“Go,” said Jesus, “your faith has healed you.” Immediately he received his sight and followed Jesus along the road.

Jesus said to him, “Receive your sight; your faith has healed you.” Immediately he received his sight and followed Jesus, praising God. When all the people saw it, they also praised God.

What do you learn from this exercise?

MORE ON BAPTISM

Work with a partner to summarize what each of these passages says about Christian baptism. You can add additional passages if you think others should be included.

Matthew 28:19-20

Acts 2:38-39

Acts 19:1-7

Romans 6:1-7

Galatians 3:27

Ephesians 4:5

Colossians 2:9-12

Titus 3:4-7

1 Peter 3:20-22

Based on your study above, summarize baptism in these terms:

Praise God with Joy

Lesson 5, Psalm 100, NIV

Important Ideas from Psalm 100

Find each of the words listed below in this word-search puzzle. Then find the words in Psalm 100. Why is each significant?

God Is King

Psalms 95–100 are sometimes grouped as “kingship psalms” because of the way they focus on God as ruler of all. List reasons God deserves to be called king, according to each of the following.

WHAT’S THE TRUTH ABOUT POVERTY?

Do internet searches to discover answers to the questions below.

How is poverty defined? ____________________________

What percentage of the world’s population lives in poverty? ____________________________

What are major causes of poverty? ____________________________

What are some widely held myths about poverty? ____________________________

Why is poverty an important issue? ____________________________

In what ways, if at all, is poverty linked to oppression? ____________________________

TALKING ABOUT POVERTY

Based on your Scripture and internet studies today, how would you respond to someone who made any of the following statements?

“Really, there’s nothing we can do about poverty. No matter how we try to help, poverty won’t go away.”

“It’s terrible that people suffer from poverty. But our biggest concern should be the eternal salvation of people, not their earthly troubles.”

“I’ve worked hard to earn my blessings. Why don’t all these poor people work as hard as I do?”

“I don’t understand why God is so concerned about poverty when this world will all come to an end someday anyway.”
Praise God for Past Deliverance
Lesson 7, Psalm 107:1-9, 39-43, NIV

To Cry for Help

Look at all of Psalm 107 to discern a pattern of crying for help in times of trouble and the ways God answered. Describe them below:

Psalm 107:6-7

Psalm 107:13-14

Psalm 107:19-20

Psalm 107:28-30

Examine Psalm 107:8, 15, 21, and 31, which are all worded identically. Describe how the psalmist desired people to respond to God’s help.

Praise God Anyway!

Consider these quotes from men and women who have discovered the value of praise in difficult times as well as in easy situations. Put an X next to the quote that most speaks to you; write a sentence at the bottom to explain why.

_____ “The point is not to completely understand God but to worship him. Let the very fact that you cannot know him fully lead you to praise him for his infiniteness and grandeur.” —Francis Chan

_____ “When we complain about our current situation, we remain in it; when we praise God in the midst of difficulty, he raises us out of it.” —Joyce Meyer

_____ “Praise is declaration, a victory cry, proclaiming faith to stand firm in the place God has given you. Praise is a proclamation that the enemy’s intent to plunder you will not rock you. Praise declares that you will not be moved by the enemy’s attempt to snatch you away.” —Darlene Zschech

_____ “We can always find a reason to praise. Situations change for better and for worse, but God’s worth never changes.” —Matt Redman

_____ “Satan’s aim is to destroy our joy and trust and delight in God, and to make God look worthless in the world’s eyes. Every time someone forsakes God for the world, gets angry at God when part of the world is taken away from them, they highlight the world as valuable . . . and every time someone stays with God, when the world is taken away, and praises God, they highlight the value and glory of God.” —John Piper

_____ “The deepest level of worship is praising God in spite of pain, trusting him during a trial, surrendering while suffering, and loving him when he seems distant.” —Rick Warren

_____ “In a sense, we are better prepared to praise God than the angels are, for angels have never known the joy of redemption.” —David Jeremiah
