Activity Pages

Winter Quarter
2021–2022
Justice, Law, History
These Activity Pages Are Designed To:

- Engage students in a way that lecture and open-ended discussion don’t.
- Gain insight on what has been learned and what hasn’t.
- Encourage students to learn from one another and build vital relationships, in keeping with Proverbs 27:17 and Galatians 6:2.

Tips For Using Activity Pages:

- Instructions are on each lesson’s “Involvement Learning” page (for teachers) and Activity Page (for students).
- Use these pages as optional alternatives for “Involvement Learning” activities.
- Limit individual work time and focus on facilitating discussion among learners.
- Encourage students to complete take-home work by discussing their results in the next class session.

Maximize Group Activity Time!

- Instead of viewing group activities as empty time for you as the teacher, look for opportunities to encourage and challenge your students.
- Pray silently during the activity for the participants’ spiritual growth! Pray for them by name, calling on the Lord to bless each person.
- Circulate among the groups of learners and observe their interactions to discover your learners’ level of spiritual maturity.
- Pray for the Spirit to lead as your students grow in their knowledge of the Word—that they may be filled with passion to boldly proclaim the good news.
HEAR HERE

More than once in the book of Deuteronomy we read the admonition for God’s people to listen and heed. Use the following chart to examine some instances. How might each of these commands serve as a message for Christians today?

No Santa

The truth of today’s Scripture offers a welcome sentiment for a Christmas greeting that doesn’t include fictions, such as Santa Claus.

On the blank card to the right, sketch an image and include a greeting that offers the light and hope promised by Isaiah 9.
Justice and Deliverance
Lesson 4, Nahum 1:1-3, 6-8, 12-13, 15, NIV

Our Just God

As you read today’s Scripture, notice stark contrasts between God’s promise to punish the wicked and his promise to restore fellowship with his people. Jot the specifics of those contrasts by making lists under both of the following headings.

Behaviors that call forth God’s wrath

Behaviors that ensure God’s deliverance

ANGER TWO WAYS

Describe a time when you allowed anger to control your actions and lead you into sin. What were the consequences of your anger and sin?

____________________________________________________________________________________

Recall a time when you ruled over anger and chose to do the right thing. How did those consequences differ from when you allowed anger to take over?

____________________________________________________________________________________

Write a prayer of repentance for the first instance and a prayer for strength to continue to learn to control your anger as in the second.

Justice and the Marginalized

Lesson 9, Deuteronomy 24:10-21, NIV

Color Coding

Color-code Deuteronomy 24:10-21 based on the key below:

10 When you make a loan of any kind to your neighbor, do not go into their house to get what is offered to you as a pledge. 11 Stay outside and let the neighbor to whom you are making the loan bring the pledge out to you. 12 If the neighbor is poor, do not go to sleep with their pledge in your possession. 13 Return their cloak by sunset so that your neighbor may sleep in it. Then they will thank you, and it will be regarded as a righteous act in the sight of the Lord your God.

14 Do not take advantage of a hired worker who is poor and needy, whether that worker is a fellow Israelite or a foreigner residing in one of your towns. 15 Pay them their wages each day before sunset, because they are poor and are counting on it. Otherwise they may cry to the Lord against you, and you will be guilty of sin.

16 Parents are not to be put to death for their children, nor children put to death for their parents; each will die for their own sin.

17 Do not deprive the foreigner or the fatherless of justice, or take the cloak of the widow as a pledge.

18 Remember that you were slaves in Egypt and the Lord your God redeemed you from there. That is why I command you to do this.

19 When you are harvesting in your field and you overlook a sheaf, do not go back to get it. Leave it for the foreigner, the fatherless and the widow, so that the Lord your God may bless you in all the work of your hands. 20 When you beat the olives from your trees, do not go over the branches a second time. Leave what remains for the foreigner, the fatherless and the widow. 21 When you harvest the grapes in your vineyard, do not go over the vines again. Leave what remains for the foreigner, the fatherless and the widow.

Examples to Follow

Answer these three questions after reading each passage listed below:

1. Who was marginalized and why?
2. Who was generous and compassionate and why?
3. How can you apply the passage in becoming more compassionate?

PSALM 51

Read Psalm 51 daily for five days. Focus on a different aspect of the psalm each day in your prayer time.

DAY 1, verses 1-4: What sin do you need to confess to God? Take some time to consider the nature of this sin and ask him to have mercy on you.

DAY 2, verses 5-6: What temptations and weaknesses do you struggle with? Consider the person God desires for you to be. How is he working to recreate and redeem you?

DAY 3, verses 7-14: What did David desire for God to do for him? Which words resonate with you? Make them your prayer today, for life change and renewal.

DAY 4, verses 15-19: Think about the ways that you can present your heart and body to God as a living sacrifice (Romans 12:1); spend time practicing this today.

DAY 5, write your own psalm of confession to God, using Psalm 51 as a guide.

FACT-CHECK THE SPEECH

There is one word wrong in each verse below. Actually, there are a lot of words wrong because Bildad didn’t speak rightly about God (Job 42:7). But what we’re interested in is one word in each verse that a reporter on the scene would have heard wrong. Find that wrong word, cross it out, and put in the word that Bildad actually said. You score 1 point for each wrong word identified and 1 point for each correct word substituted—24 points total possible.

1. “How long will you say such things? Your words are a weak wind.”
2. Does Satan pervert justice? Does the Almighty pervert what is right?
3. When your parents sinned against him, he gave them over to the penalty of their sin.
4. But if you will seek God earnestly and plead with the Angels,
5. if you are impure and upright, even now he will rouse himself on your behalf and restore you to your prosperous state.
6. Your beginnings will seem humble, so impoverished will your future be.
7. “Ask the former generation and find out what their successors learned,
8. for we were born only today and know nothing, and our days on earth are but a shadow.
9. Will they not instruct you and tell you? Will they not bring forth words from their experience?”

20. “Surely God does not reject one who is blameless or strengthen the feet of evildoers.
21. She will yet fill your mouth with laughter and your lips with shouts of joy.
22. Your enemies will be clothed in rags, and the tents of the wicked will be no more.”

SAY WHAT?

Consider these popular—but superficial, or even downright wrong—beliefs held by Christians. What Scriptures and/or logic would you use to point out problems with them?

1. There is no place for mourning in the Christian life.

2. Cleanliness is next to godliness.

3. Everything happens for a reason.

4. God loves the sinner but hates the sin.
