ON TRIAL

A slogan from years past read, “If you were put on trial for being a Christian, would there be enough evidence to convict you?” Think of someone you know well that you believe exhibits godly wisdom. List behaviors of that person that would give evidence that he or she is led by godly standards of behavior.

Review the contrasting statement and paraphrase what Jesus is affirming to His disciples.
FAITH AND WISDOM

Lesson 9, James 1:1-11, KJV

WORDS ABOUT THE WISE

Wisdom is a major theme in the book of James and throughout Scripture. Use the following verses to find answers to two questions: Psalm 90:12; 111:10; Proverbs 1:7; 2:6; 3:3; 8:11; James 1:5-8; 3:17.

1. What is wisdom? _____________________________________________________________

GOD USED IT FOR GOOD

The Bible tells many times when God turned a trial into a great blessing for the one being tested. Each case was an opportunity for God to be glorified, even in the face of a difficult situation. Can you think of some examples? Below are references to get you started. Jot further examples in the space below.

Genesis 45:1-8; Daniel 3 (especially verses 28-30); John 11:17-45; Philippians 2:5-11

POVERTY LINES

How does your attitude toward the poor compare and contrast with God’s? Summarize both in that regard as the passages below indicate.

FREEDOM OR FRUSTRATION?

The fact that God’s perfect law leads to liberty/freedom (James 1:25) is a concept difficult for some people to accept. For each of the examples below, write an idea about how the perfect law of freedom relates to the concept. Consult Scripture references in the chart below as necessary.

- Speed limits ________________________________________
- Dress codes ________________________________________
- Tax rules ____________________________________________
- Drug laws ___________________________________________
- Prohibitions against theft _____________________________
- Libel laws __________________________________________

Now, write one sentence to explain how following God’s laws, even those that may sometimes seem restrictive, brings freedom to the believer.

WHAT WILL YOU DO?

Each of the following reflects an action Christians should pursue. Beside each one, enter the verse number(s) from today’s text that gives us the command. Circle the sentence that indicates actions you can take this week and how you will do so.

- A. I need to be a better listener (James 1:______).
- B. I’m distracted by the moral evil in our world today (James 1:______).
- C. My tongue sometimes gets me in trouble (James 1:______).
- D. I know about homeless teens in my area, but I haven’t done much to help them (James 1:______).
- E. I need to find a way to help a widow I know (James 1:______).
- F. I’m much better at studying Bible commands than actually obeying them (James 1:______).
Reconsider the Stories

Today’s text alludes to personalities in three other biblical accounts. For each one, complete the sentences indicated below.

Mark 1:21-25: demon
This demon had belief, but ___________________________.

Genesis 12:1-8: Abraham
Abraham proved his faith by _____________________________.

Rahab: Joshua 2:1-21 (see also 6:23-25)
Rahab demonstrated faith by _____________________________.

Discuss with a study partner this question: What’s the difference between the belief of the demon and the belief of Abraham and Rahab? ________________________________

Finish the Thoughts

How much do you remember?

A. What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath ________, and have not ________? can faith save him?

B. Even so ________ if it hath not ________, is ________, being alone.

C. Was not Abraham our father ____________ by works, when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar?

D. Ye see then how that by ________ a man is justified, and not by ________ only.

E. For as the ________ without the ________ is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

When you finish, look up the answers in James 2:14-26.

Your score _____ out of 10.
Taming the Tongue

Lesson 12, James 3:1-12, KJV

Positive Pointers

Today’s text suggests many dangers not just for teachers but for the Christian in everyday conversations. But this is not the only place in James’s letter where he talks about the tongue. The following passages suggest further positive instruction. What help do we get for our use of the tongue from each of the following? Under each one, make a list of positive pointers.

James 1:19, 20
________________________________________________________________________________________________

Wisdom of the Sages

PART 1. James isn’t the only one who has written about wisdom. Give each of the following either a plus (+) if you agree with it, a minus (−) if you don’t agree, and both (±) if you’re not sure.

_______ A. “Science is organized knowledge. Wisdom is organized life.” —Immanuel Kant

_______ B. “Knowledge is knowing what to say. Wisdom is knowing when to say it.” —Anonymous

_______ C. “The invariable mark of wisdom is to see the miraculous in the common.”

_______ D. “It is the province of knowledge to speak, and it is the privilege of wisdom to listen.”

_______ E. “A loving heart is the truest wisdom.” —Charles Dickens

_______ F. “The wise man hath his thoughts in his head; the fool, on his tongue.” —Ivan Panin

_______ G. “Wisdom is the right use of knowledge.” —Charles Spurgeon

_______ H. “When anger enters the mind, wisdom departs.” —Thomas à Kempis

_______ I. “Patience is the companion of wisdom.” —Augustine

PART 2. Now read James 3:13-17 and 5:7-12, and compare and contrast each quote above with the instruction found there. Circle the quotes that match teaching from Scripture.

Commentary from Scripture

Sometimes the best commentary on one section of Scripture is another section of Scripture. Each of the following passages illuminates a section of today’s text. For each one, write a sentence or two to summarize it. Then write another sentence or two to express how it enhances our understanding of what James has to say.
