FAMOUS FAREWELL ADDRESSES

Whether you are a world political leader or an everyday servant of God, what you pass on to others can significantly shape their lives and their futures. Read the following Bible verses and famous speech quotations. In the blank below each quote, write your best guess of who gave the farewell address.

1. "As we peer into society's future, we . . . must avoid the impulse to live only for today, plundering for our own ease and convenience the precious resources of tomorrow. We cannot mortgage the material assets of our grandchildren without risking the loss also of their political and spiritual heritage. We want democracy to survive for all generations to come, not to become the insolvent phantom of tomorrow."

2. "Now unto God and our Father be glory for ever and ever. Amen. Salute every saint in Christ Jesus. The brethren which are with me greet you" (Philippians 4:20, 21). _____

3. "I go the way of all the earth: be thou strong therefore, and shew thyself a man; and keep the charge of the Lord thy God, to walk in his ways, to keep his statutes, and his commandments, and his judgments, and his testimonies . . . that thou mayest prosper in all that thou doest, and whithersoever thou turnest thyself" (1 Kings 2:2, 3). _____

4. "Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen" (Matthew 28:20). _____

5. "The lesson of all this was, of course, that because we're a great nation, our challenges seem complex. It will always be this way. But as long as we remember our first principles and believe in ourselves, the future will always be ours. And something else we learned: Once you begin a great movement, there's no telling where it will end. We meant to change a nation, and instead, we changed a world." _____

Lesson 4, Luke 1:26-31; 2:22, 25-35, KJV

THE BIG ANNOUNCEMENT

There are 15 incorrect words in the mangled reproduction of Luke 1:26-31 below. With Bibles closed circle the incorrect words and write the correct word(s) above the words you circled.

In the seventh month the angel Michael was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Bethlehem, to a widow espoused to a man whose name was Simeon, of the house of Levi; and her name was Martha. And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art barely favoured, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among peasants. And when she saw him, she was comforted at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of farewell this should be. And the angel said unto her, Fear much: for thou hast found favour with God. And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a daughter, and shalt call her name Immanuel.

THE GIFT OF JESUS

Simeon received a magnificent gift by being permitted to see and recognize Jesus, the Lord's Christ, the Messiah. As you think about things we know about Simeon, consider in what ways these things do or do not apply to you.

What We Know About Simeon	Does/Doesn't Apply to Me
Guided by the Holy Spirit (Luke 2:25a, 27)
Just and devout (Luke 2:25b)
Waiting for the Messiah, "the consolation of Israel" (Luke 2:25c)
Realized the purpose of his life (Luke 2:26, 29)
Able to recognize the fulfillment of God's promises (Luke 2:30-32)

VIGNETTES OF KINDNESS

Vignette 1

MARIE (hearing a knock on her door): Hi, Denise.

DENISE (talking hurriedly): Hi, Marie. I'm sorry to bother you, but I was wondering if I could borrow a stamp.

MARIE: Sure, no problem. Come in out of the cold. I have a stamp right here.

DENISE: Oh, that's great. After I wrote checks and used up all my stamps to pay bills this morning, I remembered I had a personal letter to mail as well, and I was one stamp short.

MARIE (handing her a stamp): Here you go.

DENISE (reaching out her hand): And here's the money for it.

MARIE: Oh, forget about it. You can lend me a stamp when I run out.

As Denise lays the envelope on the table to attach the stamp, Marie peeks down at it, then exclaims: What! You're writing to that Ruthford guy in prison? He's the one who broke into both of our houses! Why would you write to him?

DENISE: I just feel sorry for him. I found out his mother is very ill right now, so she isn't able to visit him.

MARIE: He should have thought about that before he became a burglar. How did you find out about his mother?

DENISE: Oh, I stopped by to find out which prison he's in, and there she was, sick from chemo.

MARIE: Poor lady. What a jerk her son was to get in trouble and leave his mother in the lurch. Why are you writing to him?

DENISE: I wanted to let him know I forgive him. I may even go visit him. He's barely out of his teen years. I thought he could use some encouragement.

MARIE: Well, you're a better person than me. I say, "Good riddance to bad rubbish!"

DENISE: Thanks again for the stamp. See you later.

MARIE: Sure thing. Bye, Denise.

Vignette 2

ALONSO (waving hello): Hey, Derek. I'm trying to finish up snowblowing before I go to work, and I just ran out of gas. Do you have any I could borrow?

DEREK: Sure thing. I got the gas can right here. My snowblower's all filled up, so help yourself.

ALONSO: Oh, that's great. Thanks so much. I'll fill it up tonight and bring it back.

DEREK: Sounds good. But why are you still snowblowing? Your driveway is clean as a whistle.

ALONSO: Yes, but I always do my neighbor's driveway whenever I do mine. And he won't be able to get out if I don't finish.

DEREK: You don't mean old man Jackson's driveway, do you? He's the grouchiest man around. I try to stay as far away from him as possible. Does he pay you to do it?

ALONSO: Oh, no. I just do it to help him out. He's got arthritis real bad and can't do it himself. And he needs to drive his wife to dialysis several times a week.

DEREK: Well, I hope at least he appreciates what you do.

ALONSO: Whether he does or not, I know he needs the help. Got to dash. Thanks, Derek.

DEREK: You bet. Bye.

WALK IN LOVE

Lesson 6, 2 Thessalonians 3:1-5; 2 John 4-11, KJV

CAN YOU SPOT A LIAR?

According to FBI interrogation experts, there are telltale clues that a person is lying. Indicate whether each statement is a good sign that the person is Lying (L) or Truthful (T).

- __ 1. They can tell their story chronologically forwards and backwards.
- __ 2. They use a lot of words and tell their account in considerable detail.
- __ 3. They use mostly first person pronouns (I, my) rather than third person pronouns (he, she, it).
- __ 4. They say the word no with a drawn-out sound (noooooo) or in a singsong voice.
- __ 5. They speak faster and more loudly than usual.
- __ 6. They are obviously infuriated at being accused.
- __ 7. They answer questions simply and directly.
- __ 8. They point their feet toward the exit.

WHAT'S LOVE GOT TO DO WITH IT?

Paul prays for the Thessalonians that their hearts will be directed “into the love of God.” John states that Christians are to “love one another” and “walk in [love].” Yet other things these apostles say may seem very unloving (compare 2 Thessalonians 3:6, 14; 2 John 10). Within the heart below explain why the directives of Paul and John are indeed based in love.

Paul identifies some people as “wicked,” and he prays to be delivered from them.

John identifies certain people as “deceivers” and “antichrist.” He tells the Christians not to take them into their houses or even greet them.

What's Love Got to Do with It? Paul's love is evident in his desire that the gospel be preached unhindered (2 Thessalonians 3:1, 2), so that many more can receive eternal life. He also wants those who have already believed not to fall under the destructive influence of wrong teaching (3:6-10, not in today's lesson text). The latter is also the basis of John's love (2 John 7-11).
